Wendy and I talked this morning. I've got Twitter covered, and Laura is the main Facebook person right now for us, other than Jessica herself.

Thanks!

Tim – I've asked Wendy to do social media for us – I think she has administrator rights on FB now. You can give her 5 min training on twitter and let her do these and others we get from HQ!

The photos below show Hermosa Creek and various points on Animas River after flushing began on Consolidated Ditch Company canals. I saw very little noticeable change in water color
